

Table of contents

Introduction: Addressing quality of work in Europe Vassil Kirov	5
Work and life quality in Europe: the guided WALQING tour Ursula Holtgrewe	27
Part I. Analysing and measuring quality of work in Europe: work organisation, crisis and actors' strategies	47
Work related psychosocial risk factors and new forms of work organisation: a European perspective Ceren Inan	49
Organisational changes and the evolution of working life quality: a comparison between the private sector and the state civil service Maëlezig Bigi, Nathalie Greenan, Sylvie Hamon-Cholet and Joseph Lanfranchi	85
Satisfaction with working conditions and the organization of work in Europe and in Greece, 1995-2010 Stavros P. Gavroglou	119
Flexible workers – modern work organization or “buffer” arrangement? Anna Kwiatkiewicz	143
Insecurity and involuntary flexibility: an example from the construction sector in Bulgaria Darina Peycheva	161
Greek crisis and the quality of jobs in IT sector Georgia Petraki	181
Part II. Improving quality of work: actors, strategies, policies	205
Social partners strategies to address quality of work in the service sector in Europe: what lessons for the stakeholders in South-Eastern Europe Vassil Kirov	207
Workers, the company and national institutions: studying the quality of work of Portuguese and Swedish middle managers in a Swedish multinational company Margarida Martins Barroso	221
Worker involvement in health and safety – making a difference Andrea Broughton	243
Employees` engagement – effects on business performance and main drivers Gergana Gancheva	259
Trans-national dimensions of the capital and labour: some changes in the workers'/ employees' representation Ekaterina Ribarova	269
Part III. Vulnerability, quality of work and societal challenges	287
Who sweeps the street? Why the Bulgarian sweepers are vulnerable and privileged to be employed? Ekaterina Markova.	289
Some sociological aspects of gender discrimination at work in Croatia Branka Galić	311
Roma in Bulgaria and Blacks in the United States: lazy and irresponsible or discriminated against? Svetlozar Kirilov	339
Wasted labour Ivan Katzarski	351
Media coverage of the trade union activity Zhana Popova	365