

Hristina Georgieva Ambareva

Education

April 2008 - March 2010: Specialization in Japan, Kyoto University, Department of Sociology.

November, 2003: Doctor of Aesthetics, Institute for Philosophical Research, BAS

July, 1999: Master of Philosophy, Sofia University “St. Kliment Ohridski”.

Languages

Bulgarian (native), English (fluent), Russian (good), Japanese (basic)

Computer Skills

Word, Power Point, Internet.

Employment

Since January 2019: Associate Professor, Institute for Philosophy and Sociology, BAS, Department of Social Theories, Strategies and Prognosis.

4 April, 2010 – January 2019: Assistant Professor, Institute for Research of Societies and Knowledge, Department of Social Theories, Strategies and Prognosis.

1 July, 2004 – 31 March, 2008: Associate Researcher, Institute for Philosophical Research - Bulgarian Academy of Sciences, Department of Aesthetics and Cultural Studies

June, 2003 – 30 June, 2004: Administrator, Institute for Philosophical Research – Bulgarian Academy of Sciences

Selected Research Projects

2021-2023: Rethinking Bulgarian Education for 21st century. Collective project of the Department of Social Theories, Strategies and Prognosis. Financed by BAS.” Project leader: H.Ambareva 2015-2017: Collective research project България в Европейския съюз – изводи, конфликти, рискове и перспективи.” Project leader: Assoc. Prof. Borislav Gradinarov. Financed by BAS.

2015-2017. Collective research project title: „Culture and Values in Late Modernity “. Project leader: Assoc. Prof. Bogdana Todorova. Partners: ISSK-BAS and Institute for Philosophy at the Romanian Academy of Sciences.

2013-2014. “The Usage of the Internet for Religious Purposes in Bulgaria.“ Collective research project: “Church and Culture in Romanian and Bulgarian history and nowadays. The future of religion on the Balkans.” Project leader: Associate prof. Bogdana Todorova, PhD, Institute for Research of Societies and Knowledge. Partners: Romanian Academy of Sciences and Bucharest Institute of Philosophy.

2013-2014 “The Role and Importance of the Digital Inequalities in Bulgaria.” Collective research project title: „New forms of inequality and transformations of power mechanisms “. Project leader prof. Ivan Katsarski. Financed by ISSK-BAS.

2009-2010: “Politics of Child Care in Kyoto City”. Team leader: Prof. Kimio Ito, Department of Sociology, Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University.

2008-2010. “Japanese Video-Game Industry”. Department of Sociology, Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University. Financed by the Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT). Individual project.

2007: 6 FP project “Building a European Network of Mentoring Programmes for Women Scientists”. Team leader: Dr. Nikolina Sretenova. Coordinator: University of Fribourg. Participants: For more information: <http://www.eument-net.eu/about/default.aspx>. Participant.

2005-2007. “Image-Culture in Bulgaria”. Institute for Philosophical Research - Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Individual project.

1999-2002. “The (Non)Discursive Aesthetics: an Aesthetic Review of the Philosophy for All and Nobody”, PhD thesis.

Information about the projects: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/christina-ambareva-61155b6/>

List of Publications:

See at: <https://issk-bas.academia.edu/HristinaAmbareva>

Books:

Ambareva 2019. Internet Culture and how it changes the world

Academic Interests

digital society and internet culture

values, knowledge, education in the digital age

philosophy of technology

EU democracy and disinformation

Additional interests

Python, Java Script, HTML, CSS